VOL. IV. NO. 6.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 7, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Newport, Latonia and Oakley Clubs of the Ohio-Kentucky field have entered into an agreement to entirely suspend the free list for 1898. This is a very good thing to do. But they have also agreed to charge only fifty cents for admission. That is a very bad thing to do. Racing is not a cheap sport and people who try to cheapen it by such action are in reality its enemies, no matter what they may think, about the matter.

To view the high class racing annually conducted over the three great tracks in the vicinity of Greater New York costs fully $2 and is generally cheap at the price. English prices are higher. Why should racing in the West be degraded to a lower level by shortsighted racing officials? If the Cincinnati, Newport and Covington officials were animated by a true and sagacious view of what is the best method to at once elevate and popularize racing over their tracks, they would cater to the better elements of the community they ask for support by charging a good stiff admission fee. They could then increase their offered money and by attracting the best horses compel public attention and reap a rich reward at the gate. Catering chiefly to the speculative side of racing seldom pays any racing organization, nor should it. The clubs named deserve to lose money and probably will. But there's an old English adage which says that a silk purse cannot be made out of a sow's ear. The adage may apply.

Secretary Green of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club has notified owners about future riding payment on a cash basis as follows: Losing mounts. First money less than $500, $5; first money $500 or more, $10; stake races, $10; hurdle or steeplechase purse races, $15; hurdle or steeplechase stakes, $25. An additional fee for the winning jockey will be deducted from the purse or stake, as follows: First money less than $500, $10; first money $500 and stakes, $15; hurdle or steeplechase purse races, $15; hurdle and steeplechase stakes, $25.

There is a "down-to-the-bone" turf discussion of depth and humor in the Anglo-maniacal newspapers of American profession and their journalistic opponents. The "weather-in-Paris" specialists exult in thinking that Tod Sloan is trying to "duck" the Fleischmann contract he made last fall. The "land of the free and the home of the brave" specialists rely on Mr. James Tod Sloan's honor and Americanism to fill the hole he made before he left his native land. All this is intensely funny. The English hi-ky of success is peculiarly Sloanesque and tintinabulating. It appeals to the flamboyant vitals of the "sawed-off and hammered-down" bon vivant from Indiana. He can ride; he can pose; he can love—in a small way; he can spend—in a large way—and all that; but the American or the sentimental racing angle will not figure in Mr. James Tod Sloan's geographical or working plans of 1898.

In a note concerning the sons of Lexington last Monday, DAILY RACING FORM referred to Tom Ochiltree as one of the few still living. It was an error, for Tom Ochiltree had died Dec. 29, at the farm of his owner, Wyndham Walden, near Middleburg, Md. No notice of his death had been published, however, so the error was unavoidable.

Tom Ochiltree was one of Lexington's best sons, a horse that would have won fame in any racing country. His dam, Katona, was by Voucher, a son of Wagner, dam Countess, by Margrave, winner of the St. Leger of 1832. Ochiltree did not start as a 2-year-old, making his debut as a 3-year-old in the Preakness

Stakes at the Baltimore spring meeting 1875, winning the event. It was a year memorable for remarkably good 3-year-olds, including such grand horses as Aristides, winner of the first Kentucky Derby, Withers and other leading stakes of the time; Calvin, winner of the Belmont stakes; Rhadamanthus, Dwyer Bros' first really good horse; Ten Broeck, D'Artagnan, Ozark, Viator, King Alfonso, Bob Wooley and others, any one of which would have been deemed a crack-a-jack in ordinary years. He won that year four out of nine starts, including the famous Dixie stakes at the Baltimore autumn meeting in which he beat the best of the year. In 1876 he was a very great race horse up to any weight and distance, winning in eight out of ten starts, including the Baltimore and Monmouth cups at two miles and a quarter, and the Capitol and Maturity stakes, each at three miles. As a 5-year-old he won nine out of fourteen starts.

Major Domo, twice second in the Suburban, was no doubt his best son, though many others owing their paternity to him were very useful racers and his daughters have proven good broodmares.

Ex-jockeys Elmer Slaughter and Garner are now partners in a racing way at New Orleans. The pair will do well if it evades the official eye. It had a good time at St. Louis last summer. The firm knows its business and has had a lot of experience. There are stories on the records about its members. Here's the first:

When Slaughter was in clover and in Chicago a few years ago he had much money and more muscle. The latter was most evident and public. Col. Slaughter then had a natural notion of irreverence in common with income and the burden of carrying too much money around. The financial action was uncertain in those days. Of course Col. Slaughter was a keen purchaser and entertainer. Now and again he gave a dinner party in a fashionable local restaurant. The first wasn't much. They grew more recherche with age and experience.

At the first dinner party Col. Slaughter had three guests. Naturally the waiter asked him for the order. He scanned the card with the eye of a wise fish, but being out of his peculiar tank gave an off-hand order that is on file even unto this day. It ran this way: "Just give us ten dollars worth of ham and eggs."

A new and supportive table had to be brought in with the meal. The party was foundered and thirty dollars worth of wine and ten dollars worth of ice had to be added to the tab as mere foils for sheer thirst.

The eastern wing of the Horsemen's Protective Association met in New York last Tuesday and elected I. L. Garside secretary and Matt Byrnes, a director. A lot of resignations were accepted, among them that of Jockey Fred Littlefield. This resolution was adopted by the Association:

Resolved, That hereafter no trainer or jockey, unless a horse owner, shall be eligible to membership in the Horsemen's Protective Association.

Another resolution, which was adopted, seems to indicate that the differences between the Protective Association and the Jockey Club have been adjusted, as is undoubtedly the fact.

The stewards of the Jockey Club met Wednesday and agreed upon the following apportionment of dates for 1898 for the clubs conducting racing under its jurisdiction:

Washington Jockey Club, spring meeting, April 11 to 23.

Queens County Jockey Club, spring meeting, April 25 to May 5; summer meeting, Aug. 15 to 25; autumn meeting, Oct. 24 to Nov. 8.

Westchester Racing Association, spring meeting, May 7 to 26; autumn meeting, Oct. 1 to 22.

Brooklyn Jockey Club, spring meeting, May 28 to June 16; autumn meeting, Sept. 13 to 29. Coney Island Jockey Club, spring meeting, June 18 to July 4; autumn meeting, Aug. 23 to Sept. 10.

Brighton Beach Racing Association, July 6 to Aug. 9.

Saratoga Racing Association, July 28 to Aug. 27.

All dates are inclusive.

EDDIE JONES BEATS TORSIDA.

Last Tuesday, as a result of the foul decision over the race which Eddie Jones won, but lost to Torsida at Ingleside New Year's day, a match race for $750 a side was run at Ingleside. It was at the same distance, seven furlongs, and same weights—Eddie Jones, 104; Torsida, 108. Jones won handily in 1:27.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual will be far above what was promised for it. The book will contain at least 250 pages. Its turf, billiard and pugilistic records will outclass any ever before printed in an annual book of records. The book will be on general sale by January 10, at 25 cents. Its covers will be substantial and handsome and its contents welcome to every lover of correct records.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Count of Flanders comes honestly by his quality. His dam, Countess Langden, is by Kingcraft, an English Derby winner and son of the great sire of mares, King Tom; second dam Josyan, by Adventurer; third dam Lady Langden, dam of the English Derby winner Sir Bevis, by Kettledrum; fourth dam Haricot, by Mango or Lanercost; fifth dam, Queen Mary, by Gladiator, who was the mother of Blink Bonny (Derby and Oaks winner), Bonnie Scotland and half a dozen other celebrities.

After the race in which he made a new nine-furlongs record for California, Salvado pulled up lame. It was supposed the injury was not important, but the Breeder and Sportsman says that it has turned out the colt has an enlarged tendon, and Henry Mason will be lucky to get him to race by April next.

St. Callatine is a beautifully bred filly. Her dam, Callatine, is an own sister to Inspector B, Bella B and Getaway, and a half-sister to Kosciusko. Lord Marmion's dam, Lady Marion, by Sir Modred, was a winner and an own sister to such good horses as Sir John and Sykeston.

R. ("Tiny") Williams will probably ride for J. E. Seagram, the Canadian horseman next season. Mr. Seagram has a formidable array of horses and is likely to begin his campaign at Little Rock in the early spring.

Part of the Tucker string at New Orleans including Peacemaker and Eton Jacket will be sold Saturday. Dunster was sold a day or two ago to H. Riddle and Arrezzo to R. Jones.

Woodland Belle was shot a few days ago at Oakland, Cal. She was hurt last season and became a confirmed cripple.

Ab Stemler recently offered $4000 for Torsida. The offer was declined by Daggie Smith of Oakland, Cal.

The Board of Appeals of the American Turf Congress will meet on January 11, probably in the west.

Dave Gideon still hangs on to his expensive failure Elkins. The colt is with him in California.

Harry Duke has been sent to Memphis for a let up until the opening of the spring circuit.

Andy Blakely has purchased Southworth and will use him over the jumps.

BRIGHTON BEACH 1898 STAKES.

The conditions of sixteen Brighton Beach stakes, entries to which will close Feb. 1, have been furnished DAILY RACING FORM by Secretary Sass. Of the number seven are for 2-year-olds, three for 3-year-olds, four for 3-year-olds and upward and two for the timber toppers. They are the First Attempt for 2-year-old fillies, $10 each and $20 additional to start, $1,000 added, penalties and allowances, five furlongs; The Distaff, for 2-year-old fillies, same conditions and distance; The Spinster, for 2-year-old fillies, same conditions, six furlongs; The Rising Generation, for 2-year-olds, same conditions, six furlongs; The Undergraduate, for 2-year-olds, same conditions, five furlongs; The Electric Handicap, for 2-year-olds, $30 each or only $10 if declared, $1,000 added, six furlongs; The Winged Foot Handicap, same conditions, five furlongs. The events for 3-year-olds are the Nautilus, $10 each, $25 additional to start, $1,200 added, penalties and allowances, 1 1/16 miles; the Sea Gull Handicap, same entrance, $1,000 added, one mile, and the Saragossa, for 3-year-old fillies, same entrance, $1,000 added, penalties and allowances, one mile.

The races for 3-year-olds and upward are all handicaps except the Cup. They are The Brighton, $2000 added, $50 each or $15 if declared, one mile and a quarter; The Test, $1000 added, $30 each or only $10 if declared, one mile; The Flight, $1000 added, $30 each or only $10 if declared, six furlongs, and The Brighton Cup of the guaranteed value of $7500, $100 each or only $25 if declared by May 1, two miles and a quarter. For the jumpers the stakes are the Punchestown Steeplechase Handicap, $25 each or $10 if declared, $750 added, the full course, and the Chantilly Hurdle Handicap, same entrance and added money. One and one half miles.

The added money to the Cup has been increased $2,000 over last year and to the Nautilus $200. In all of the handicaps weights are to appear two days before the race. The stakes are sufficiently valuable to enlist the attention of horse owners the country over and should receive heavy entry lists.

Winner—Br. c, by St. George—Leeve.
Start fair. Won in a hard drive of four horses. Lee was far the best. He is a smart colt and game as a pebble. He favors a distance of ground. Attainment was a trifle short. She is best on a fast track. She was much used and failed at the end on that account. Marks will do his best in soft footing. He was coming strong at the finish. Watch this fellow. Towanda is a sprinter. He ran his race. Highland Ball doesn't like to go a route. She was shut off at start. Luis did not run his race. He favors a fast track and needs strong handling. He is good and should be kept in view. Tiny P is best on a soft track but was outclassed. So was Henry C. The others were not ready.

Scratched—Master Mariner, 101; Tenricka, 104; Donator, 104; Morinel, 105; Glenower, 101; Musculado, 101; Mainbar, 104.

Overweights—Tiny P, 1 1/2 pounds.
